

SPIRIT OF '76

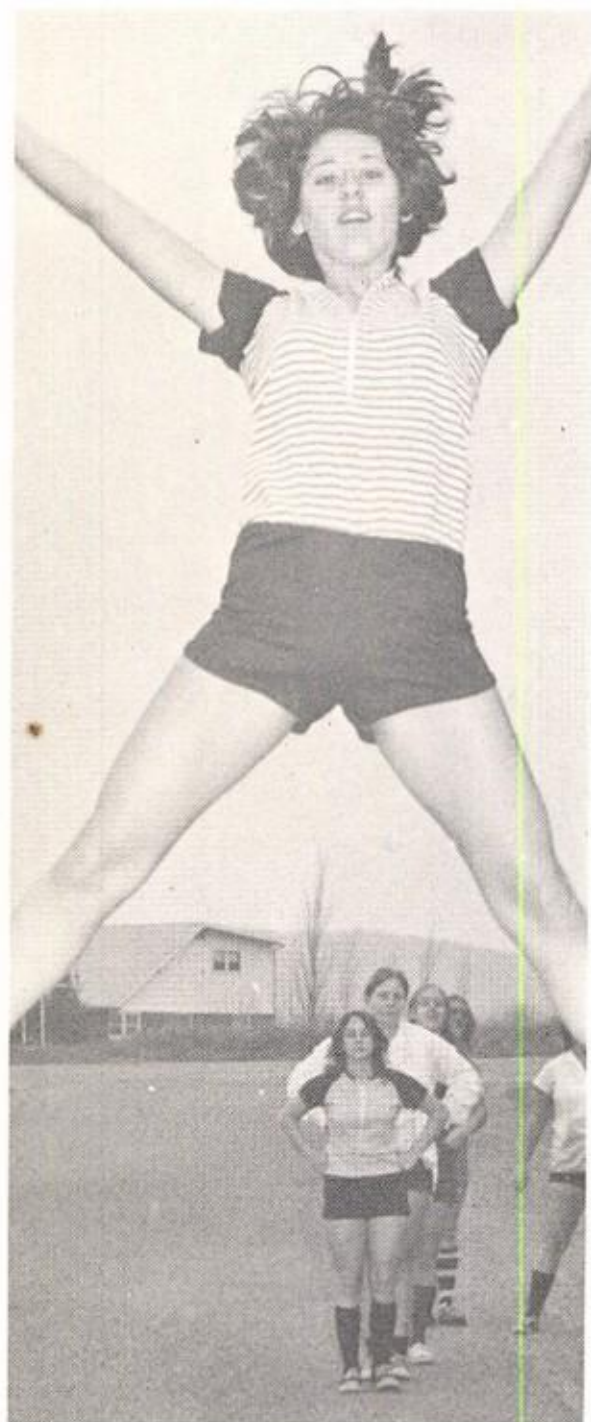

Time goes ever so swiftly
Why then, must we always live
in the past or future?
Whatever happened, my friend,
to the time we call “Now”?

The Dedication

The Annual Staff wishes to dedicate its 1976 volume to ITSELF. Few people realize the editing of a yearbook is one of the most difficult jobs undertaken by any group of high school students. Long hours, endless preparation, and genuine interest are the only criteria for joining the staff. The reward . . . seeing "their" book in print.

Special thanks to Miss Simkowski, our Adviser. Without her constant "hassling" and dedication, this yearly feat would become a tedious effort.

—The 1976 Annual Staff

Bob Stremcha, photographer, worked long hours to improve our quality and creativity.

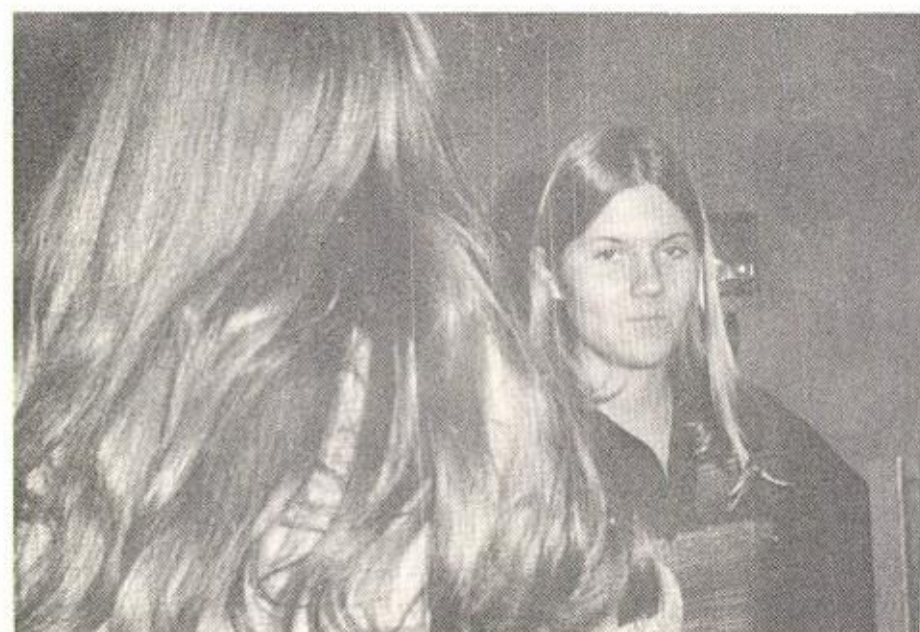

Rose Brockman worked to meet deadline while Miss Simkowski, Adviser, makes a routine inspection!

Denise Riley and Annie Nelson, new to the Annual Staff, ponder over pictures.

Artist, Kathy Tyler, works on new ideas.

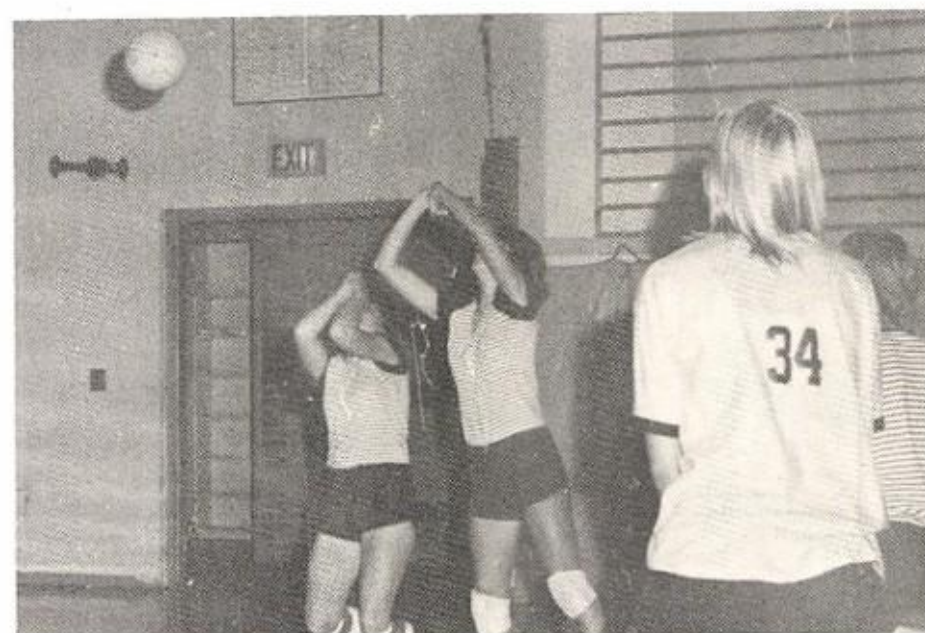

Seniors, Debbie Hayden and Mary Ann Wotowicz clean up after a session.

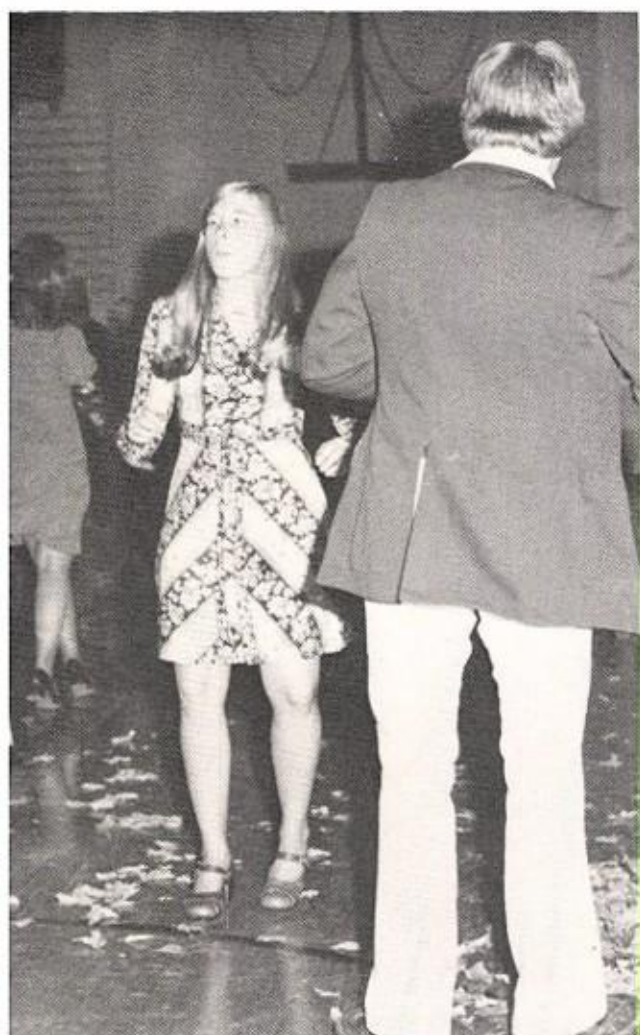

Seniors show off their TOUGH TEETH.

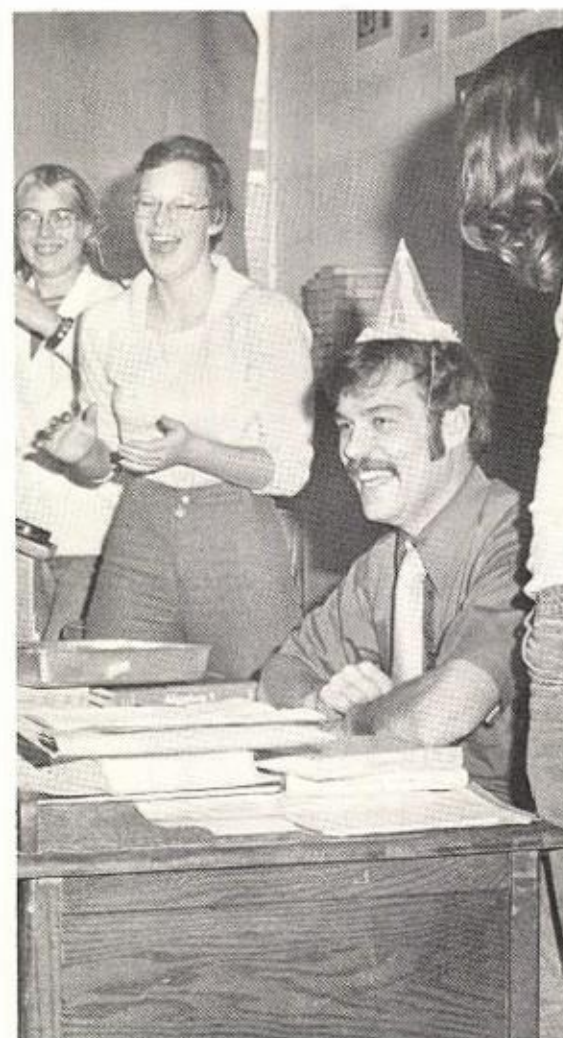

Math IV does their thing!!

HOMEcoming 1975

Homecoming 1975, thanks to the Royall student body and their parents, was a spirited success. Spirit, for the first time in years, was a community as well as school affair.

Cheerleaders sponsored "Special Days" which included a "Dress Down Day", "Mis-match Day", "School Colors Day", and "Braid Day".

Skit Competition brought the following results: Juniors, first; Seniors, second; and Sophomores, third. Float competition brought home another victory for the Juniors; Sophomores, second; and Freshmen, third.

Queen Anita Pasch and King Mike Meckstroth were crowned at the annual pep-fest. The remainder of the court consisted of Cheri Kozaria escorted by Mike VanDeHey, Kristy Gwin escorted by Matt Kaczmarek, Brenda Artz escorted by Ed Doyle, Nancy escorted by Neilen Petersen, Patty Robson escorted by Tracy Parrish, Debbie DeLong escorted by Dennis Schendel, and Joan Winchell escorted by Scott Garfoot.

"Tapestry" supplied the music for the traditional Homecoming dance. The theme song selected for the 1975 Homecoming festivities was "Dance With Me".
